Our Latest . . . 1933 Novelty

MRS. L. B. CODDINGTON received the American Rose Society GOLD MEDAL in 1932. It is a rich watermelon pink color. The flowers are large with pointed buds, spicy fragrance. The foliage is very firm and leathery. Parentage: Templar x Souv. de Claudius Pernet. See color plate in front of American Rose Annual for 1932.

PRICE: $2.00 each—$10.00 a dozen

This is the fourth new rose that we have introduced in recent years. The others were the well known President Hoover, Mrs. Herbert Hoover and Autumn.

These 4 roses may be yours for $3.00

PRESIDENT HOOVER. A gorgeous rose of a really new color combination. Cerise-pink, orange and scarlet. Winner of four Gold Medals. An excellent outdoor rose as well as for forcing.

MRS. HERBERT HOOVER. This is one of the finest crimson roses, a rich velvety dark red. Very fragrant.

AUTUMN. The flowers are of fine form, and a wonderful combination of crimson-scarlet and yellow. No other rose in the world like it. Florists find it in great demand.

TO CARRY THE PLANTS THROUGH THE WINTER.

We recommend the following simple method: before the ground is frozen too hard, usually about the middle of November, procure some rough straw or litter, or branches of evergreens, or dried leaves and put around the lower parts of plants, to a height of about one foot. Cover this with a little soil to prevent the wind from blowing it away. In the Spring remove this and cut away the wood killed by frost, giving a mulching of well-rotted manure.

Standard Varieties We Offer

BRIARCLIFF. A splendid rose-pink, without any shading at all.

TALISMAN. The most talked of rose of today. Brilliant orange-red buds, combined with gold apricot, pink and carmine.

PERNET. One of the most popular clear yellow roses.

RAPTURE. An exquisite salmon shade, deeper than Mme. Butterfly. Golden flush at base of petals.

JOANNA HILL. This is a clear yellow, deepening in center to orange. Strong stems producing an abundance of blooms.

PREMIER SUPREME. A rich dark pink. pink.

THE EXPERIENCE OF OTHERS MAY BE YOURS

June 9, 1932, Honduras, Central America.

"The plants arrived in very good condition. Not a single one was dead. This is the first time I have received roses with such a magnificent result, which is marvelous indeed if one takes into consideration that the number of plants shipped was over sixty and that it took them twenty days to reach me. I must congratulate you on your excellent packing."
